A typical classroom scene in Up the Down Staircase with Carolyn Stewart, teacher, having a serious discussion with student Kenny Knox, who isn't quite so serious.

Zack Burkett fails to heed the teacher's warning and finds himself on the floor.

The entire cast of Up the Down Staircase pause before dress rehearsal for a friendly camera shot.

Joe Davis provides the problem-student role in a scene with teacher, Carolyn Stewart, and principal, Steve King.

A hard-working stage crew is also "camera hogs" in this shot.

Arsenic and Old Lace

Junior Class Play

Bob Pitcock is relieved when his two eccentric aunts sign documents to go to Happy Dale. Carlton Tucker supplies the "doctor's" signature to make it legal.

The villains Scudday and Tucker are thwarted in their efforts when policeman Gary Todd arrives.

Charming Linda Jennings almost falls victim to the wrath of Scudday as Tucker watches.

Stage crew members Mary Hammond, Cindy Parker, and Gary May pose for the photograph while Skip Bryant surveys the set.

Trumpets of the Lord

Vicki Johns reads opening prayer in the production.

Brian Ragle reads "The Creation" by J. W. Johnson.

Carolyn Carter leads the singing of "Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child."

Brian Ragle, Vicki Johns, Carolyn Carter, Janice Copeland pose for a picture after "Trumpets of the Lord" had been presented at First Baptist Church.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

"Where, there is hatred let me sow love

Where there is injury, pardon

Where there is doubt, faith

Where there is despair, hope

Where there is darkness, light

Where there is sadness, joy.

"O Divine Master grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled

as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned

and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life."
